

Curriculum Summary

Subject: History

Year 7	Year 8	Year 9	Year 10	Year 11
How do historians 'do' history?	How diverse were experiences in the trenches of WW1?	Crime and Punishment 1250 to Present Day: A thematic study looking at change and continuity in crime, policing and punishments from medieval times through to the modern day.	Living under Nazi Rule 1933-45: A world period study that examines life in Nazi Germany for different groups such as women, young people, and the Jewish community, as well as the experiences of people under Nazi occupation in Europe during the Second World war.	The Making of America 1789-1900: A world study that focuses on the growth of America after independence, the Civil War, exploitation of African Americans and the expulsion of Native Americans.
How far were the church and crown challenged in the medieval period?	How intolerant were the USA and Germany in the interwar years?
How significant were the Tudors?	How did the holocaust happen and who were the perpetrators? How did Jewish people respond and resist during the holocaust?
How accurate is the story of the gunpowder plot? Did the King deserve to lose his head in 1649?	How badly did the Second World War impact the people of Torquay?
How far did the slave trade damage west Africa? What were the experiences of enslaved Africans in the Caribbean?	What were the key turning points against the Nazis in the Second World War? How much more democratic did Britain become in the 20 th century?	The Norman Conquest 1065-1087: A British study that examines the upheaval of the Norman Conquest, changes to Anglo-Saxon life, the development of castles and the English rebellions that followed.	The Age of the Cold War 1945-1991: A modern world study exploring the aftermath of the Second World War, the origins of the Cold War and flashpoints such as the Cuban Missile crisis and the Vietnam War.
How far did the Industrial Revolution change the world for the better?	To what extent have migration, empire and people changed and shaped Britain, 790-present day?			